AUTOMOBILES SOURCE OF MANY BILLS NOW BEFORE LEGISLATURE

Responsible for More Legislation than Any Other Agency Excepting Railroads

FIVE MEASURES PROVIDE FOR DRIVERS' LICENSES

Restriction on Driving Aimed to Reduce Accidents

MADISON, Wis.—Automobiles are responsible for more bills in the present legislature than any other single agency except railroads, as is shown by the list of measures introduced up to the present time. There have been 21 proposals dealing with problems raised by motor cars brought into the two houses, seven in the senate and 14 in the assembly.

Licensing of drivers is at the bottom of five of the suggested laws, followed by the registration of cars to decrease the number of thefts, and by regulations governing liability of drivers and the speed limit. There is an evident move to defeat most of the proposed legislation as shown by the number of recommendations for indefinite postponement made by the highway committee.

No automobile legislation has passed both houses up to the present time and only one measure, that of Assemblyman Perry's to place vehicles operated for profit under control of the railroad commission, has been passed by either house. The vote by which this measure was passed, 55 to 7, will be reconsidered.

Some one proposal, evolved from the many suggested, will be worked out by the highway committee to provide for licensing of drivers. This move will have a strong backing in both houses, because of the feeling that there must be restriction to prevent incompetent persons from operating motor vehicles, in order to reduce the number of accidents.

Senator Beck was the first to bring in a licensing bill. His proposal was so broad in its scope and contained such a large amount of detail in administering that the highway committee recommended that it be laid on the table along with a bill suggested by it to govern licensing.

In the assembly, Pierson has two rigid licensing bills which are recommended for indefinite postponement along with one by Assemblyman Higgins. None of these measures is expected to succeed in running the gauntlet of the lower house.

The luncheon proposal for registration of automobiles with the register of deeds in the same manner as other property, was killed in the senate when it came out of the highway committee for indefinite postponement. Assemblyman Mark has a somewhat similar proposal to aid in preventing thefts, and in a like manner his bill is recommended for killing, leaving the way practically closed to registration laws for the next two years.

Two measures have been introduced requiring drivers to stop before railroad crossings. The Czerwinski bill making it compulsory for all automobiles to come to a standstill within 15 feet of a railroad track, was killed early in the session, with the Schaefer bill, requiring a stop within 200 feet of a danger signal, still before the highway committee.

Two bills, one by Assemblyman Conway and another by Assemblyman Lucas, would relieve owners of automobiles from liability incurred by the driver if he was not operating the car with the direct consent and knowledge of the owner.

A privilege tax on motor vehicles in addition to the present license fee would be levied under provision of a bill by Assemblyman Jordan now before the highway committee. The amount of the tax would be dependent on the use to which the automobile was put. Another bill by Assemblyman French which has been killed would permit cities to engage in motor bus service wherever there was no street car line.

Practically all of the suggested measures have either been killed or are recommended for indefinite postponement so that there is little likelihood of any general change in the regulation governing operation or registration of motor vehicles in the state during the next two years.

REAPPORTIONMENT OF STATE DISTRICTS UNDERTAKEN BY COMMITTEE OF LEGISLATURE

RADICAL CHANGE EXPECTED IN THE SEVENTH DISTRICT

Work Held up Until Congress Determines Size of Wisconsin Representation

MADISON, Wis.—Reapportionment of the state into new senatorial, congressional and legislative districts based on the 1920 census, the most important work before the present session of the legislature, got under way Friday morning when committees of both houses were selected.

Far reaching changes affecting the political complexion of Wisconsin are expected to result from the work of the joint committee of 16 members, 11 assemblymen appointed by Speaker Riley S. Young, and five senators chosen by the committee on committees of the upper house.

The assembly committee with one representative from each congressional district in their order follows:

The Committee
Alexander P. Matheson, Janesville, republican; Robert Caldwell, Lodi, republican; Charles Tuffley, Jescobell, republican; Edward P. Vollmer, Milwaukee, republican; Frederick J. Peterson, Milwaukee, republican; J. F. McDowell, Monticello, republican; M. N. Hincman, Tomah, republican; Fred J. Less, Antigo, republican; Durt W. Rynders, Antigo, democrat; George Oakes, New Richmond, republican, and J. R. Farr, Phillips, republican.

The senate committee in the order of its selection by the committee on committees follows:

Clare D. Bira, Wausau, republican; R. J. Nye, Superior, republican; Oscar H. Morris, Milwaukee, republican; Oscar R. Olson, Blanchardville, republican, and Louis A. Arnold, Milwaukee, socialist.

It is a notable fact that selections have been made which eliminate in a large measure representatives of the so-called La Follette progressive wing of the republican party. Two assemblymen, Tuffley and Caldwell and one senator, Olson, are the only progressive members, with one democrat, Assemblyman Rynders, and one socialist, Senator Arnold, on the committee.

Senator Bira is expected to serve as chairman of the committee which will immediately start its survey of changes to be made in the legislative districts. A change in representation from the southern to the northern section of the state will result, because of the shift in population during the past ten years.

To Change Seventh District

Reapportionment of the congressional districts will be held up until congress determines the Wisconsin representation on the basis of census returns. Change is looked for in the Seventh district where John J. Esch was defeated at the last election by Congressman Beck. The First district is also due for decided alteration, according to expression from assemblymen from the southeastern part of the state.

Because of the late date at which the committee will get under way, it is thought likely that a recess session will be needed to complete the reapportionment work. The first move to have a committee selected was made during the first week of the session when Senator Bira introduced a resolution providing for a committee of three assemblymen and two senators to undertake the redistricting problem.

This resolution was adopted at once in the upper house, but was then safely pocketed in the elections committee of the assembly until two weeks ago when it was amended to provide for a committee of 11 assemblymen and five senators, and was finally adopted in that form.

The task before the committee involves a mass of technical details and will directly affect the political status of every section in the state. Because of the politics involved, it is expected that a bitter legislative battle will result before the arrangements are accepted.

WASHINGTON, D. C.—F. E. Shepard, head of the Order of Railway Conductors, was invited to confer with President Harding on the transportation problem.

ASSEMBLY REFUSES TO REVERSE VOTE BARRING LOBBYIST

MADISON, Wis.—The assembly Thursday morning by a vote of 29 to 46 refused to consider the vote by which it denied Glen Turner, former member and lobbyist of the Muehlenberg union, the privileges of the floor. There was no discussion preceding the vote, which means that the action of the lower house is final.

Licensing of automobile drivers as proposed by Assemblyman Pierson was killed in the lower house. The measure would require all drivers to register with the secretary of state before permitted to operate a motor vehicle.

There was a reversal of attitude toward the appropriation of $100,000 to the dairy and food commissioner, which had been killed last week. The measure was sent to third reading Thursday morning, following reconsideration by a vote of 43 to 41.

The assembly refused to reconsider its action placing motor vehicles operated for hire, under control of the railroad commission, but voted to send the Schaefer bill relating to compensation for city officers and the Denuhardt bill affecting advertisements on trunk highways back to committee.

TRAINS CRASH
JANESVILLE, Wis.—Two Chicago & Northwestern trains trying to make the same switch here Thursday night, crashed together, overturning three coaches of the passenger train from Harvard, Ill. Three men on the Harvard train were injured, not seriously. The train which hit the Harvard passenger train was from Chicago.

COMMUNITY CHORUS REORGANIZED BY WAUKON CHURCHES

Mrs. David W. Douglass, Old Resident of City, Dies in Seventieth Year

WAUKON, Ia.—Recalling the popularity of the community chorus in Waukon two years ago, a movement has been under way for some time to arrange for another this year. Accordingly a chorus was organized Sunday afternoon at a meeting held at the Methodist church, and Miss Edith May Meivert will be the conductor. The following officers were selected:

President—Miss Clarice Dillenborg of the Reformed church.
Vice president—Mrs. Eva Howe, Baptist church.
Secretary—Chris Megorden, St. John's Lutheran church.
Treasurer—Dr. C. W. Rominger, Presbyterian.

Publicity—A. M. May, Methodist.
The first practice meeting will be held in the Reformed church on Tuesday evening, April 12th, at which the singers of Waukon and vicinity are cordially invited and urged to be present.

The marriage of Miss Hazel Johnson of Elon, Pa., to Mr. Oscar Burd of Canton, S. D., will take place at the home of the bride's parents on Wednesday, April 6th. A miscellaneous shower was given in honor of the bride at her home last week.

Mrs. David W. Douglass died at her home in this city Thursday morning at 10 o'clock, after an illness of several months' duration, during the past five weeks of which she had been confined to her bed with dropsy. She was aged 70 years and four months. Her maiden name was Adeline Deminault Ewing and she was born in Perry county, Indiana, December 1st, 1850. The family came to Iowa when she was but three years old and settled on the old Ewing farm on Yellow river, where she grew to womanhood and obtained such education as the country school afforded.

On January 11th, 1867, she married David Wilson Douglass, who with the following named children survives: James David, Mrs. George Halston, Alexander Wilson and William Wallace of Waukon; Mrs.

Charles Welch of Menomonie; Mrs. Robert J. Adams of Mendon, Missouri. One daughter, Adeline Agnes, preceded her in death fourteen years ago. She is also survived by two sisters, Mrs. James Chambers of North Platte, Nebraska, and Mrs. John N. Davis of Waukon; also one brother, Jacob Ewing of Forest Mills, and fourteen grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

The funeral services took place from the Presbyterian church Saturday afternoon, conducted by Rev. Van Nieu and burial was in Oakland cemetery.

The giant Ferris wheel in Paris has been declared unsafe and is being taken down.

BIG GIRLS' PARTY ON THIS EVENING FOR ALL HI GIRLS

A real party for the girls with every kind of stunts imaginable, songs, games, good eats and everything else necessary for a rollicking good time is scheduled for this afternoon and evening at the high school.

Every girl in school from the shyest of shy freshmen to the bluest of bluest seniors is going to be on hand. It is the first chance for every girl to get acquainted with the rest of the girls of the school. Oh yes! It has been reported that any faculty member who is not in the thick of the fun is to be tried at solemn court martial.

Just to show the boys that they haven't any cinch on athletics the girls propose to stage an honest-to-goodness track meet with races and contests of every kind. Then there is to be a grand march to the strains of—oh! we aren't supposed to tell—oh! it will lead the girls to the lunch room where they will manage to empty about six hundred lunch boxes to the accompaniment of snappy songs and yells.

But best of all are the dances, songs and stunts to be given in the gym. According to advance reports, a stirring melodrama filled with intense action and excitement is one of the features of the entertainment. Charlie (Clampin), Nazimova, Eugene O'Brien, Marguerite Clarke and Mary Dickford are only a few of the movie favorites who have consented to appear in person.

POKA GAMA PLAY

The three act comedy, "What Happened to Jones," put on by the Poka Gama last Saturday evening, was a great success. The play was full of humor and thrills that kept the audience roaring with laughter. Much may be said about the acting of the cast, Bluewizer, Alex Paternicki, was an ideal professor and acted the part as though he had actually lived such a life. His wife, Rachel Jones, was exceptionally good. The part of Jones was played by Eldon Mulder, who acted the part of a crooked salesman excellently from the start to the finish. He kept the audience guessing all the time. Though the Bishop, Ralph Matson, didn't say much, his part was played well and he surely did look like the part. The Norwegian maid, Ina, who was always "butting in," caused the audience to roar every time she appeared.

Much credit for the success of the play, is due to the coach, Miss Gudges.

FIRST CALL FOR TRACK MEN

MADE MONDAY AFTERNOON. Track has started! Everybody out! All freshmen and sophomores urged to try out for track.

About 100 fellows attended the first track meeting but Mead wants about four times that number to try out.

The track will be repaired this week and all fellows should help in the repairing of it. Now let's get busy. Everybody trying out for track should help in the repairing of the field and the track so track can start for good next Monday.

ORATORICAL CONTEST

WON BY HANKERSON.

For the first time in seven years La Crosse won the league oratorical contest held Friday evening, April 1. Fred Hankerson of La Crosse won the first prize while second honors were topped by a Sparta orator. The high schools represented in this league contest were Sparta, Tomah, Viroqua and La Crosse.

The district contest will be held at the Normal School, April 8. Each Normal school has charge of one district and so there are eight districts in the state, and in each district there are several leagues. The winner of the league contest enters the district contest held at the respective normal schools in their district. The winners of the eight districts compete at Madison for the championship of the state. The only time that La Crosse ever entered in the state oratorical contest was in the days when Paul Esch was going to the La Crosse High School.

Pearl Friehorn and Marcella Bartz will represent La Crosse in the Girl's declamatory contest to be held Friday at Viroqua. The girls will give stories or poems in this contest. Pearl Friehorn's being a story called "Happy in His Lot," and Marcella Bartz's is a story of the South.

HIGH SCHOOL GIRLS

IN SPRING FETE

A number of girls from the La Crosse high school will take part in the Spring Fete given by the Y. W. C. A. next Tuesday and Wednesday evenings at the La Crosse Theater.

A group of Girl Reserves will help and another group will take part in a dance. Those who are to take part in the dance are as follows: J. Goldstein, E. Friehorn, H. Roberts, M. Schmeider, E. Friehorn, H. Roberts, A. Standard, A. Brown, L. Mader, L. Wiens and M. Duffy.

Another dance is to be given by the following girls: J. Atkinson, P. Moore.

FRECKLE-FACE

Sun and Wind Bring Out Ugly Spots How to Remove Easily

Here's a chance, Miss Freckle-face, to try a remedy for freckles with the guarantee of a reliable concern that it will not cost you a penny unless it removes the freckles; while if it does give you a clear complexion the expense is trifling.

Simply get an ounce of Othine—double strength—from any druggist and a few applications should show you how easy it is to rid yourself of the homely freckles and get a beautiful complexion. Rarely is more than one ounce needed for the worst case.

Be sure to ask the druggist for the double strength Othine as this strength is sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove freckles.

Vondrashek, our star forward, made 251 points in 17 games, 37 more than opponents. His record consists of 88 field goals and 75 free throws. Some record, eh?

A group of high school girls liked to Riverside camp Sunday afternoon. They took the wrong road at first, but finally found the right one. After eating a picnic supper, they liked back to La Crosse, tired but happy. Astrid Lisbakken was overwhelmed with joy Monday morning when she discovered she had lost 15 pounds in weight.

The Clark sisters entertained the Girl Scouts at a one o'clock luncheon Saturday afternoon in honor of Frances Goetzman, former student of the La Crosse high school. After the luncheon a business meeting was held.

Astrid Lisbakken proved herself a delightful hostess Friday evening, April 1, when she entertained the members of the O. E. T. club at her home.

Many schools are telling of their wonderful basket shooters. We come in on that. Our opponents made a total of 214 points in 17 games while dancing and merry-making and at ten o'clock a delicious luncheon was served. Those present were: Rita Biedsell, Esther Flustad, Louise Scott, Inga Johnson, Dorothy Smith, Marion Jehlen, Faye Nutting and Leone Houska.

Zita McDonough entertained seven couples one evening last week at an informal dinner party in honor of Frances Goetzman, William Hargen, Ellen Salzer, John Jord, Dorothy Sieger, Timothy Dalton, Gunvor Skarr, Donald Welch, Lucile Dusty, Jack Sullivan, Jane Baldwin, Joseph Evans, Zita McDonough and Donald Gordon.

The basketball boys were entertained by Mrs. Reay at an April fool supper Friday evening, April 1. Many good jokes were played on the boys during the evening. A huge box of delicious looking candy was passed around, but as the old saying goes "appearances are deceitful," for the chocolates were filled with red pepper.

Mr. Butler entertained the "got-together" members of the faculty Monday evening, April 4.

PUPPET SHOW IS FINE TREAT AT NORMAL SATURDAY

"The approval of a child places the seal of genuineness, the approval of a child and grown-up, the seal of perfection. The latter seal is clearly stamped on a performance of the Lillian Owen Marionettes," is the report from Nashville, Tennessee, after a recent performance. The task of puppeteer in such a show as the Community Council is bringing to the Normal on Saturday is one for an artist. The art is not only that of learning to pull the many strings which control each little figure at the proper time. This is the art of a reader, and of an interpreter of character who must give personality to a puppet.

In the presentation of "Jack and the Beanstalk" for instance Jack's spirit must never be forgotten in the speaking voice and yet at the same time his speaking voice must be so soft it too. The giant must thunder when he talks and his body must assume at the same time an awe-inspiring attitude; when he sleeps he must not forget to snore and at the same time to move his body breathing. Miss Owen was joint partner with Tony Sage, the reviver of the puppet performance, but has been for the past several years producer of the town company. She has of her own designing what are reputed to be the best dolls in America and lack nothing in costume, facial expressions and in animation.

GERMAN TRADE IN CHINA INCREASING

WASHINGTON, D. C.—A very noticeable increase of German trade activity in China was reported to the department of commerce Friday by Commercial Attache Arnold, at Peking. Considerable quantities of German goods, including electrical machinery, dyes, iron, steel products and hardware, he said, are becoming factors in the Chinese market, while exporting of Chinese products through German concerns also is being developed.

MINNEAPOLIS GIRL HAS LOTS OF SPEED BUT LITTLE CONTROL

MINNEAPOLIS.—Miss Florence Bernhardt, waitress, was arraigned in municipal court here Thursday on an assault and battery charge for hitting a customer with a teapot.

"I aimed at another man who had been annoying me," she explained to the judge.

"Your control doesn't seem very good," the court commented. "It's spring and I'm not in form," she replied. The case was dismissed.

HEARING SCHEDULED ON BILL TO ADJUST STATE INCOME TAX

Dahl Measure Would Carry Out Platform Pledge Declares Author

BILL INCLUDES FEATURES OF OTHER TAX MEASURES

Exemptions Raised to Correspond With Federal Law

By FRED L. HOLMES
MADISON, Wis.—An adjustment of income taxes of the state is proposed in a bill by John L. Dahl, Barron County, which is to be given a hearing Friday afternoon before the house committee on taxation. Mr. Dahl declares that he has introduced this measure to carry out pledge of the Republican platform, declaring in favor of adjustment of income tax rates in this state. Dahl is administration leader in the lower house.

The Dahl bill contains many features now incorporated in several different bills in the legislature. It readjusts the present income tax rates and increases exemptions for married persons and individuals so that this feature of the bill will correspond with the present federal law.

"It repeals the so-called 'secrecy clause' of the income tax law of 1911.
This will enable the authorities of the state to check up the correctness of income tax returns of corporations and individuals as made at the present time. In order to determine to what extent individuals and corporations of the state have been dodging income tax. The tendency of this repeal, if enacted into law will be to persuade anyone who suspects that his neighbor is not making an honest return to have the opportunity of inspecting the records of incomes. No doubt this will meet with much opposition from many sources, but it should also receive support from all those who wish to see honest returns made, and thus placing equal burdens upon all in proportion to their actual incomes that should be reported. The present tendency of the law is to encourage dishonesty in making returns.

"It repeals the so-called personal property offset. The present law permits any one who pays an income tax to use his income tax receipt to pay that much of his personal property tax, thus making his income tax that much of an offset to his personal property tax. For instance, a man who pays an income tax of $50.00 and has a personal property tax of $50.00 pays but the one tax. This defeats the income tax to a considerable degree, and it is to remedy this defect that the present measure repeals that part of the law of 1911.

"The law of 1911 permits an individual who receives dividends or incomes from stocks or interest in any co-partnership, corporation joint stock company or association, the income of which has been assessed under the present income tax law, to deduct such amount received from their taxable income regardless of how large their income may be from this source. That is, if an individual had all of his wealth invested in such sources, and received say an income of $10,000 from such sources, he has so far been exempted from taxation; the present bill exempts $2,000 of income from this source and taxes all of such income over that amount. It would seem that any person enjoying this source of income after making his usual deductions either as a single person or as a married person or the head of a household, and deducting besides an additional sum of $2,000, out of such sources of income ought to be simply proportional and should be taxed on such incomes above that amount. This total exemption of this source of incomes in the law of 1911 was based on the theory that such corporations have already been taxed before declaring such dividends.

demonstration of "Sealsweet" grapefruit at La Vague's Sanitary Grocery strator is showing the many ways of ular fruit, and many housewives who have heretofore known only one or cious surprises. The demonstration will Ointment. I had a running sore on my

MADISON BUILDERS ADOPT OPEN SHOP

MADISON, Wis.—The open shop policy has been put into effect by the Madison Master Builders' association, following failure of the local building trade unions to accede to the terms stipulated by their employers.

It had been proposed to the unions that all trades receiving more than $1 an hour be paid at the rate of $1 an hour, and all trades receiving less be paid ninety cents, with contractors paying an additional ten cents an hour. This proposition was rejected by the men.

WHITMAN TO PROBE MURDER CONFESSION OF BUFFALO MAN

NEW YORK.—Impressed by the account of the Joseph L. Elwell murder given at Buffalo by Roy Harris, former Governor Whitman, in charge of the murder investigation, said Friday he was beginning to take more seriously Harris' alleged confession of complicity in the crime.
It was reported that Mr. Whitman was making an effort to have Harris brought here. Harris, arrested on a forgery charge, signed a statement that he and William Duncan, a friend, were hired with promise of $5,000 each to kill the turfman. He explained that a woman known to him as "Mrs. Fairchild" employed him.

BLAINE PICKS JOINT COMMITTEE TO PROBE STATE COMMISSIONS

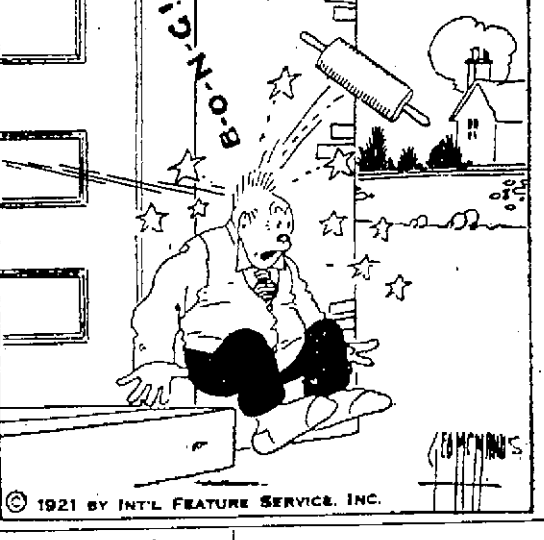

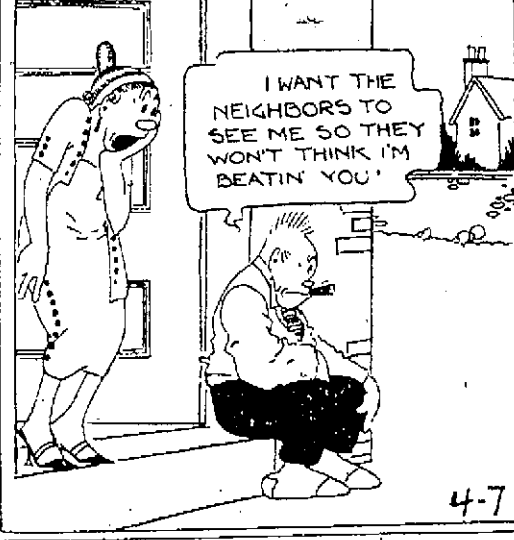

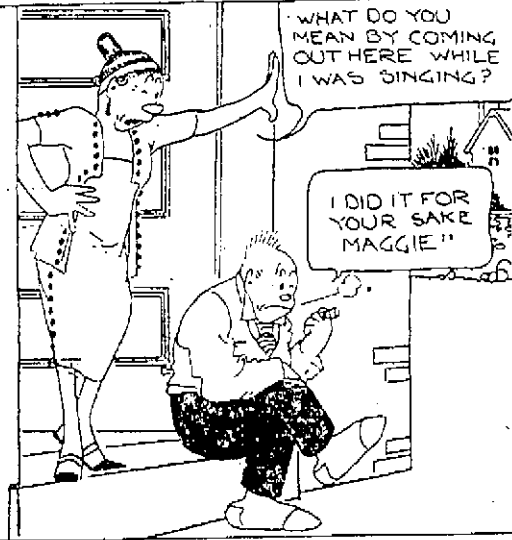

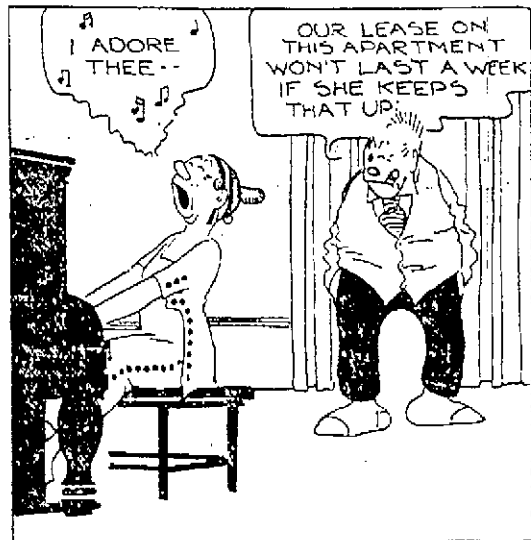

MADISON, Wis.—Investigation of boards and commissions of the Wisconsin government with a view to consolidation and elimination, as suggested by Governor John J. Blaine, will be started within the next week as a result of appointment Friday morning of assembly members on the joint investigating committee.

Mark Carlin of Appleton, David Summerville of Ladysmith, and W. A. Preehoff of Wausau, were selected by Speaker Riley S. Young to work with the senate committee, made up of Henry E. Roethe of Pommerehne, and Herman J. Severson of Iowa.

The assembly appointments were made with a view of counterbalancing the influence of the senate members who are outspokenly opposed to the present diversified organization of the state government. Thorough investigation with definite recommendations for change is assured by all members of the committee, although they differ in their views on the subject.

Greater centralization of authorization of authority with a comprehensive reorganization of the present agencies, if necessary, into a few unified departments responsible to the governor is advocated by Senator Roethe who will act as chairman of the committee. The present system is without plan and without responsible head, he points out. Senator Severson expressed himself as strongly favoring a complete and thoroughgoing investigation. He said that there would be a minority report should the assembly representatives hold out against changes that the senators regard as for the best interest of the state.

The three assembly members of the committee are conservative in their views and were selected with a view to tempering the committee recommendations. The three appointees are friendly to the present committees and have expressed themselves as opposed to any sweeping changes.

BOY CONVICT GIVEN PARDON BY BLAINE 'WON'T BE DEPORTED'

MADISON, Wis.—Sverri Skarneress will not be deported when he is released from the reformatory on Friday. Upon petition Governor John J. Blaine Thursday morning signed a pardon which will allow the nineteen-year-old boy to return to his family at Stoughton instead of being deported to Norway as had been planned by federal authorities. Skarneress forged a small check and in June, 1919, was sentenced to two years at reformatory. His pardon was granted on the grounds that he had no relatives in Norway, that his family was in Stoughton and his conduct has been exemplary while in the reformatory.

to carry on successfully are the special problem of the Federal Board. Training is given those men either through schools or in industries or business houses or offices which will enable them to make a living successfully in spite of the handicap from which they may be suffering due to disease or injury incurred in the service.

This plan has been put into operation in order to bring this training to men who need it as rapidly as possible. With the great number of disabled men who returned from the war it has necessarily taken considerable time to investigate and take action on each claim.

Any disabled man who is in need of training or whose claim has been pending with the Federal Board, is urged to call on April 11th, at the

What Is Solvay Coke?

It is the product which results from baking a proper mixture of superior coals in air-tight retorts by means of external heat, in much the same manner as bread is baked in an oven—it is really baked coal.

The patented Solvay Process removes the smoke, soot and tarry matter, leaving practically pure carbon, the heat element. The fuel that has the most carbon will give the greatest heat.

BURN

The housewife enjoys it because it is clean—easy to handle—light in weight, and because it is always dependable whether used in cook stove, heater or furnace. It is cheaper than hard coal and extensive tests by the University of Illinois showed the heating efficiency of SOLVAY COKE to be 11 per cent greater than they were able to get from anthracite, which means that even if you had to pay equal prices for it, Milwaukee Solvay Coke would be 11 per cent cheaper than hard coal.

CARPENTIER MAKES DEPOSIT AND ENDS DODGING RUMORS

Fans are Sure of Seeing Tussle as Frenchman Sends Forfeit of $50,000

NEW YORK.—Georges Carpentier has put the quietus on the rumor mongers by having his $50,000 forfeit forwarded to the United States as a guarantee that he proposes to go through with that little wrangle which has been arranged between himself and Jack Dempsey for July 2.

You can bet something else that when Georges goes through with those proceedings he has no notion of skipping out on the match to quarrel with Frank Moran, the Pittsburgh bruiser, or any of those other rough kids.

For several weeks there have been some queer yarns about Carpentier hurdling the Dempsey fight to box some one in London. Now the damper is on all that gush and the Frenchman will soon hop to these shores to prepare for Mr. Dempsey.

$50,000 forfeit on Way

Tex Rickard was notified Thursday by Robert Edgren, the official stakeholder for the contest, that Carpentier's forfeit of $50,000 has been forwarded by the Morgan-Harjes bank of Paris to the Central Union Trust company of New York. Mr. Edgren said that he has received a cable from the Paris bank to that effect.

The genial Tex said Thursday he would be a happy person when he receives his mail on Saturday and tells the whole world and Brooklyn where Jack and Georges can have their little scrap. He explained that there have been many reasons why he did not care to make the announcement as to the bout before Saturday.

"Carpentier has kept his word with me, fulfilling every detail in his contract, and the cable Thursday gives further assurance that there will be no hitch in the match," Rickard said.

Georges to Sail in May

"Carpentier, who is on a boxing tour at present, will return to Paris the end of this month to prepare for his departure to this side the first week of May, according to the latest advices from his manager, who has requested me to look over several available locations for a training camp."

SCHOBER AND SUTER WRESTLE TONIGHT AT WAUKON, IOWA

WAUKON, Iowa.—(Special.)—A wrestling match of more than usual interest will be staged in Waukon Friday evening of this week when Billy Schober will grapple with Otto Suter. Schober, the Indianapolis champion of the world title in the middleweight class, defeated Barrett last week at Garner and now challenges any middleweight. Suter of Montana wrestled with Whittney Wickham of Appleton, Wis., last Friday in Waukon, the men going the full two hours without a fall. Suter has never been beaten by any man of his weight. The Schober-Suter match will be held at the M. R. A. hall under the auspices of the Waukon Athletic club.

BRITT AND HANLON IN SNAPPY 3-ROUND BOUT ON THURSDAY

SAN FRANCISCO.—Jimmy Britt and Eddie Hanlon, one-time challengers for the lightweight boxing championship, are still "first-class fighting men." A crowd at an "Old Timers" boxing show, held here Thursday night for the benefit of an Irish relief fund, voted them that. The two put on the snappiest of nine 3-round bouts, some of which were staged by men several years their juniors.

MOTORCYCLE PICNIC

Holidays for Prisoners

In the American jail at Samara the custom was established of rewarding well-behaved prisoners with a holiday on Sunday. They were allowed to leave the jail on Saturday afternoon with the promise to reappear on Monday morning, but this privilege has been cut down to a great extent by reason of the fact that some of these paroled prisoners spent their time in robbing the quarters of the officers.

Ray Caldwell held the Chattanooga Southern association team to five hits yesterday in the first full game he has pitched this season, but the Cleveland Indians lost 1 to 0 because they could not launch any of their eight hits off Daniel Boone, a former University of Alabama pitcher. The Detroit Americans in their sojourn through the southwest, in five games this week, have hit sixty safeties, including ten home runs. Cobb, Heilmann, Veach, Blue and Woodall are credited with the circuit drives. Five of the total were made yesterday at Tulsa. Tiger pitchers are going well, too.

The White Sox will play at Louisville this afternoon with Davenport on the mound. Following this game the team will go to Milwaukee. Four games for Saturday and Sunday are scheduled with Kerr and Mulrean pitching. The club will then return to Chicago for a practice session on the home for Monday and Tuesday morning in preparation for the opening of the season at Detroit Wednesday.

PAL MOORE WINS IN MATCH WITH KELLY AT KENOSHA ARENA

KENOSHA, Wis.—Pal Moore, the Memphis Flash, by finishing strong, won his match here over Jimmy Kelly of Chicago at the Coliseum Thursday night. Kelly started out strong and out-slugged Pal in the first three rounds. Then Moore's wind-mill motion came into its own and hampered the way to a shade victory for the southerner. In the semi-windup Pete Johnson, Kenosha "prize fighter," scored a knockout over Ed. Schult in the second round as the end of a grudge fight to end a rivalry of four years. Jack Elie outscorped Billy Cepak in three rounds of the opener when Cepak was forced to withdraw because of a broken thumb. A $1,000 gate was attracted by the show.

Not Enough Hudsons

Super-Six Still Holds Exclusive Position

Hudson shortage is a fact. Buyers know it. Instead of immediate deliveries an increasing number find they must wait.

Total stocks of Hudsons, everywhere in the country, average less than two cars per dealer.

Our own spring demand must be met from such small stocks as we had the foresight to get during the slack season past.

Note What You Save

Now we see better than ever before what hold Hudson quality has among motor car users.

The present market is selective. Hence the emphasis of Hudson value. Its cost advantage gives $1000 or more saving against any car to which you compare Hudson quality, reliability and performance.

Perhaps you hold Hudson the greatest of all cars. Surely, in many respects, you acknowledge this is so.

For instance the Super-Six motor. It is exclusive to Hudson. For five years it has been the master type. No other has been developed to match its efficiency and endurance. It practically annuls vibration. The smoothness which results is appreciated not only in riding ease. It means absence of strain, and friction. Repair freedom and a long life car results. It accounts for Hudson's five years of sales leadership.

And if you plan to buy soon, bear in mind that deliveries are already difficult and stocks must be even more limited as the season progresses.

MARCIA'S OPINION

By H. LOUIS RAYBOLD

In his close, dingy-walled, fourth story room, Bill Evans sat, shirt-sleeved, pounding his typewriter. The machine was disgracefully dusty and had two caps missing from the letter board, but for all that it gave forth a steady click-click which competed successfully with a couple of buzzing mosquitoes.

Suddenly Bill paused, ran his fingers wildly through his mop of hair and gazed dejectedly out into the very darkness. "Confounded it!" he groaned audibly. "How can I write this drivel? 'Here's a play I think perfectly rotten, played by a cheap bunch of actors, and I'm going to cut it out of the theatre after the final off. Yes, what else can I do, after running out every play in that house for a month? If I gave my honest opinion again, the old man would think me a confirmed pessimist and get somebody else to hold down this playhouse job which, heaven knows, I can't afford to lose, punk as it is.' Once more he bent to his work resignedly and pounded on.

You see, it was Bill's seventh job in as many months and Bill was engaged to Marcia Stebbings—engaged, that is, on the condition imposed by her cautious father, that he make good enough at something to show was in him Marcia said she did. Marcia's father was a coldly skeptical.

For the moment Bill was dramatic critic of the Sounderville Evening Telegram, a position more magnificent in title than in remuneration. But it provided him with sufficient cash for board and lodging and allowed him enough spare time for odd bits of free-lancing, the returns from which purchased cigars for himself and flowers for Marcia. Also, the job meant a pass to the theatre good for two! On that pass, this very evening, he had taken her to see "Never Mind, Jane!" and although he had gone determined to comment favorably he had, in spite of himself, been bored to death. Nor was he particularly pleased that Marcia enjoyed the play immensely. "I always enjoy plays in which the women wear evening clothes," she had told him complacently, "and I thought the leading woman's hair was done just wonderfully!"

"But good heavens, Marcia," he had exclaimed irritably as they walked out of the theatre after the final curtain, "the plot is poorly constructed, the third act drags, the denouement isn't logical, the villain's love-whimied, and the hero's a fanatic!"

For now, three hours later, he mopped his perspiring brow and chewed what he had written—"a little ragged, but shows promise—clever plot—excellent support by entire cast—Maurice Blaine his usual good form." "I suppose that would satisfy even Marcia," he told himself coarsely.

Marcia's the best girl there is in the world, but what she doesn't know about criticism of the drama would run a correspondence school!

Next morning feeling like a man who has prepared his soul to give his skin, Bill turned in his column on "Never Mind, Jane!" Furthermore, he was resolved thereafter to write nothing but the truth, job or no job, Marcia or no Marcia. "Thank fortune he'd had the sense to hold privately to his own views," by the way, and not be influenced by her views on the subject.

That noon, in a white-tiled lunch room he ran into Simmons, his boss, editor of the Telegram. "Well, that gentleman, with a glance that Bill took to be rather superior, 'that you and I don't agree about 'Never Mind, Jane!' I took my wife to it last evening, and of all the poor shows!" He continued elaborately to express his opinion while Bill, growling inwardly, yearned to say, "Them's my sentiments, too!" Unfortunately Simmons held proof to the contrary elegantly typewritten.

It was some months later, after Bill had investigated in vain one opening after another, ranging from jobs as shoe clerk and apprentice cigar maker to positions as factory inspector and postoffice employee, hoping to discover something promising a future on which one could marry the daughter of a cautious father, that the blow fell.

"The old man wants to see you!"

Sam, the office boy, advertised the fact loudly to Bill, who was getting out a copy at a desk in the corner. Bill rose and with an abnormally cheerful expression assumed for the benefit of two girl reporters, strolled to the editorial door.

"Sit down, Evans," Simmons, with an invited him cordially, and Bill sat, but he sat gingerly, on the thin edge of the chair. Personally, he would have preferred to take standing what was coming.

"Do you know," began his inquisitor, "this town is too small for you?" Simmons had the reputation of being a sarcastic devil, but Bill refused to wrinkle.

"It is—in a way," he admitted thoughtfully, as one to whom the truth has just been brought home. "You remember that play you wrote up?" went on Simmons pointedly. "Never Mind Something or Other."

Bill nodded. He certainly did remember that play. For one thing, it had brought about his first difference of opinion with Marcia. It had furnished subject for argument quite recently.

"Well," continued Simmons, "I didn't, personally, think a whole lot of it, but it seems your intuition was right. You said it showed some promise. That promise was fulfilled, I see that it returns to New York after tremendous success on the road and is predicted to become the hit of the season."

Bill glared but whistled. Then he settled back comfortably, crossed his knees and waited.

"Now, we've got to cut the size of the 'Telegram'." Simmons went on, "and I regret to say that our review of plays has to go. But—" and he paused impressively, then continued, "I happen to know of an opening on a certain paper—he mentioned the name—and I think I can say that it is yours if you want it." And at that Bill Evans did whistled.

"Believe me, young man," was Simmons's last word as he shook Bill's hand, "any man who saw one grain of promise in that fool play has a dramatic instinct which should be not only recognized but encouraged."

That evening Marcia intercepted a look on Bill's face so pregnant with an unspoken thought that she broke off in the middle of a sentence of congratulation.

"What is it, Bill?" she asked curiously. She was feeling tremendously happy in the knowledge that her faith in him was justified.

er, informed of Bill's good fortune, had waived his caution and consented to give her away in the bridal month of June.

"I was thinking, Marcia," he said slowly, and his tone was awed, "that you knew more than the old man about that play, to say nothing of me. You thought it was good."

Marcia smiled deprecatingly. "I've always been pleased that you were influenced by my opinion at the time and wrote up such a favorable notice, so different from your own views."

hope I can often help you that way." If Marcia wondered why Bill grinned so broadly she forgot her wonder as he crushed her to him. "Any man would do a lot for such a wise little thing as you?" he declared fervently.

BOWLERS IN ELKS' LEAGUE END SEASON WITH BIG BANQUET

Presentation of Prizes Features Annual Event of Devotees of Winter Sport

VAUDEVILLE AND BAND MUSIC ENTERTAINS LEAGUE MEMBERS

Forty Bowlers Receive Solid Gold Prizes at Feast

Presentation of valuable gold and silver prizes, a beautiful feast, band music, vaudeville features and that brand of good fellowship which is characteristic of the order, featured the annual banquet of the Elks' Bowling league at the Elks' club Thursday night. It was the largest attended and most successful banquet in the history of bowling in the lodge.

The banquet was served in the lodge room on the third floor, the bowlers being seated at small tables, with the Elks' band, which furnished music throughout the evening, occupying a long table on the south side of the hall.

W. F. Hurlston was toastmaster and did the honors in handsome style. The guest of honor of the evening was Judge H. Langstadt, pioneer resident of La Crosse, who declared with his old-time pep that he is still one of the boys of the town. In a speech which brought down the house.

Two fine vaudeville acts from the Majestic theater, a rousing feature and musical number, served big. Presentation of the big silver cup to the championship team, the Antlers, was a noteworthy event of the evening. A. H. Blockman, captain of the team, accepted the trophy and made a neat little speech in behalf of his bowling aggregation.

Forty bowlers in the league were presented with solid gold Elks' emblems. Joseph Hart and W. Bonadure, the players with highest averages in the two leagues, received gold emblems containing diamonds.

George Krause suggested the organization of a La Crosse basketball team or a summer sport leader. The matter was taken under consideration.

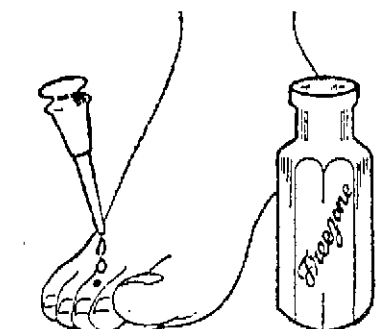

Following are the prize winners in the bowling leagues.

EXPLOSION CAUSES HASTY EXODUS FROM GOTHAM COURT ROOM

NEW YORK.—New York's night court, busy as a result of the police department's first drive at enforcement of the state prohibition law, adjourned temporarily in disorder early Thursday when a quart of confiscated liquor exploded in the pocket of a detective.

The detective stood before the magistrate supporting a man who, with bowed head, was confessing that he had partaken too freely of the brew that intoxicates.

"Where's the evidence?" asked the court.

The detective's hand moved toward his pocket, a loud report followed. Some one shouted "Bomb!" and a rush for the exits began. The detective was hurled to the floor, as was his prisoner. The magistrate and others in the court gathered outside, returning only when apprised of the cause of the explosion.

The next defendant on the docket, a father of ten, still trembling as a result of the explosion, took a pledge to abstain "forever and forever."

MOTHERS OF NATION NOT MAKING GOOD SAYS CLEVELAND MAN

CLEVELAND, Ohio.—In a report read and discussed by the Child Welfare department of the Cleveland Federation of Women's clubs, Superintendent of Schools R. C. Jones said immorality is the greatest menace of the public school today; that we are fast drifting toward free love in this country; that the mothers of the nation are not making good on the jobs and that dancing in Cleveland schools will be barred entirely unless it is conducted as a wholesome pleasure and entertainment for school pupils.

HUNGARIANS DEMAND PUNISHMENT OF MEN WHO AIDED CHARLES

Deputies Oppose Plan to Regard Incident as Closed; Ask Investigation

BUDAPEST.—By The Associated Press.—Investigation of the circumstances surrounding the attempted return of Former Emperor Charles to the Hungarian throne has been demanded at a meeting of agrarian members of the national assembly. A resolution was introduced recommending that the incident should be considered as closed, but it was defeated and there appeared little disposition to drop the question of responsibility for the incident.

It appears that the anti-Carlists had confidential agents in the immediate vicinity of the former emperor while he was in this country and it is declared they have a list of men associated with Charles in his attempt to re-establish himself on the throne. The agrarian deputies have urged their punishment on a charge of treason.

In addition the anti-Carlists accuse the Hungarian government of a "damnable lack of energy respecting the kind." They declare the government permitted him to hold a regular court at Steinamanger, appointing officers and creating barons and administrators to them the oath of office. Opponents of the restoration of the Hapsburgs appear to be most concerned with the role played by Bishop Miklos of Steinamanger, who in a sermon delivered last Christmas forecast the "king's resurrection" at Easter time.

GUATEMALA CITY.—The national assembly approved the treaty creating the Central American union.

PUBLIC DEMANDING BERGDOLL'S RETURN SAYS LEGION CHIEF

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind.—Hundreds of telegrams and letters voicing sentiment for the return to this country of Grover Cleveland Bergdoll, convicted Philadelphia draft dodger, now in Germany, are being received at national headquarters of the American Legion, officials announced here Thursday.

The general public is leading the demand for Bergdoll's return, legion officers say.

F. W. Galbraith, Jr., national commander of the legion, telegraphed Thursday from Washington, where he is in conference with President Harding's committee for relief of disabled service men, the following message: "I am bringing every argument to bear on government officials to hasten the demand for Bergdoll. The legion cannot rest until this paragon of the disloyal is once more behind prison bars. I think that the time is not far away."

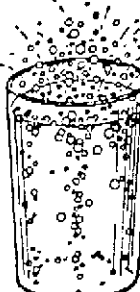

PRINCESS ANASTASIA TO RETURN TO U. S.

ATLANTA.—By The Associated Press.—Princess Anastasia, who is convalescing from her recent illness, may go to America soon.

It was originally intended that she would journey to England to undergo a second operation, but in view of the fact that Great Britain has not recognized King Constantine it was feared the princess' husband, Prince Christopher might possibly not be welcome. The princess is said to be unwilling to leave her husband. Her recovery is being retarded by attacks of nausea.
